FRONTIERS IN FLIGHT

Air Show Rehearsal and Friday Night Concert

When: Friday, Sept. 7, 2018

Time: 4:30pm – 7:30pm

Where: Hangar 1126

Who: Active Duty Military, Air and Army National Guard & Reserve, Retirees, DoD Employees and their families

Expected Attendance 1,200 - 1,500

The Air Show is a working weekend at McConnell! For our military, this means time away from family to work the big event. The Wing Commander has requested a Friday Night Event and Concert to follow the Air Show Rehearsal. This is a time for everyone to come together in comradery and fun to celebrate this outstanding community event and to hail the United States Air Force and aviation in our community. The evening includes Meet & Greet the Thunderbird pilots, free food and music. Sponsorships of Cash or Product-In-Kind will be accepted to enhance the event.

Donor Support

Hundreds of military members and civilian employees will volunteer to work many hours per day in support of the air show. Many areas of the air show, Civilian Air Acts, STEM and Kid Zone, are not funded by the government but enhance the airshow experience. Donations of cash or product-in-kind and services are accepted to offset costs of providing these enhancements to the event.
